This is ultimate luxury living—welcome to Dahlia's Plan 3, two stories of home redefined. With four to five bedrooms and three to four bathrooms, every member of the family will have a room of one's own. Beyond your charming porch lies an expansive open-concept living area, where the great room, dining area and kitchen offer an airy, light-filled space to relax or entertain in. And it comes complete with a covered indoor-outdoor area to take in the California sunset. The top floor boasts an ample bonus room to convert into whatever you need, whether that be a play station, workspace or additional living area. Just off the steps, you'll find a tech center with a built-in desk, in addition to a convenient laundry room and abundant storage options. And with a primary retreat with all the fixings, including a spa-like bath and massive walk-in closet, you'll be living your best life.
